IV. Title IV, HEA Loan Eligibility

Even though you are using military benefits, you may still be considered eligible for Title IV, HEA financial Aid (grants and loans).

V. Terms and Conditions of Title IV, HEA Loans

NSLDS Loan Information

Student loan information will be provided to NSLDS and will be accessible by guaranty agencies, lenders, and schools determined to be authorized users of the data system.

Subsidized Loans Terms and Conditions

Loans must be repaid with an interest rate of 4.53% for loans first disbursed on or after July 1, 2019. The U.S. Department of Education is the lender and pays interest on the loan while the student is in school at least time (12 clock hours/week) and during grace and deferment periods. The student has between 10 and 25 years to repay depending on amount owed and type of repayment plan selected.

Loan origination fees of 1.059% apply.

VI. Education Benefit Programs Offered by the Department of Veterans Affairs and Department of Defense

The Department of Veterans Affairs and the Department of Defense offer a variety of education benefit programs that you may be eligible to use at The Chrysm Institute of Esthetics. Visit the Department of Veterans Affairs website at www.benefits.va.gov/gibill/education\_programs.asp for a listing of VA education benefit programs. For further information and for all applications regarding military benefits, contact your VA representative.

VII. Private Student Loans

The Chrysm Institute of Esthetics does not currently have any arrangements with any lenders for private student loans. It is important to note that if a student takes out a private loan, that the interest rate and origination fees on the private loan may differ significantly from Title IV, HEA loans.
